Tracey is good-looking. She is of average height and rather slim. She is dark-haired and sun-tanned. Besides, she is blue-eyed (in fact she has beautiful large blue eyes) and rosy-cheeked. Not to mention she is thin-lipped. She has by the way a turned-up nose and thin eyebrows.

She is always wearing a blue-spotted scarf, she just loves it. She is narrow-shouldered and slim-hipped. She is wearing an open-necked and short-sleeved grey tee-shirt and black leggings. Lastly, she has red leather shoes.

PROJET FINAL

Create your pop art portrait!
THINGS YOU NEED

- A picture of you
- Canson paper
- Scissors
- A pencil
- A rubber
- Painting or felt-tip pens
Choose a picture of you.

Make four black and white photocopies.
Draw the outlines.

Draw a strong outline to simplify and separate the main areas of dark and light in the image.
Now create four different portraits.

Fill in with several bright colours.
Now create four different portraits.

You can even create different patterns.
Now create four different portraits.

Why not play on tones?
Now create four different portraits.

What about using different textures such as cloth, newspaper, foil paper...?
Your portrait must represent you through...

- Colours
- Tones
- Textures
- Patterns
Cut the four portraits and decide how to place them on your Canson paper.

Here we go!
You have created a Pop Art Portrait.
